OCEAN SHORE HEARING HELD

San Francisco and S. P.
May Take Over
System

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 1.—Representatives of the Ocean Shore Railroad appeared before the state railroad commission today presenting arguments in support of its petition to make permanent the abandonment of its system, which is located between San Francisco and Santa Cruz.

It was stated that although there is an additional yearly return of $10,000 in sight, there would be a deficit of $350,000. Recently the company stopped operations after its workers struck for an increased wage, and petitioned the commission for the right to dispose of the system, because of virtual insolvency.

J. A. Walden, former consulting engineer for the system, said that additional freight orders approximating 10,000 tons a year could be obtained. F. F. Thomas, attorney for the road, said this would be but a "drop in the bucket."

NO WAY TO NEGOTIATE

The Japanese question has at least expanded from a Californian to a national question. The American Legion convention was held, not in California, but in Ohio, and its members were mostly from the Eastern states whose people a few years ago thought the Japanese question a local California freak. Yet that national convention now adopts a resolution such as would have been possible only among the most extreme faction of Californians. In this as in many other respects, California has at last been accepted as a part of the United States.

On the Japanese side, the discussions still show a characteristic obliviousness of the American style of government. A few years ago a distinguished American entertained at a garden party by Baron (now Viscount) Shibusawa found that the question most frequently asked him was "Why does your government permit the newspapers to print such misrepresentations regarding Japan?" It happened that the Hearst papers were just then printing a series of fantastic lies which the American visitor, as an honest man, could not defend. But when he explained that in America the press was free, and that the government could not control even such outrageous fiction as these, his Japanese auditors simply shook their heads and could not understand. The idea that there could be an acknowledged evil which the government had no authority to deal with is beyond their comprehension.

Similarly, today, Japanese authorities hint that if the California land-law initiative passes, the Japanese government will ask the Washington government to suspend its operation, pending negotiations regarding it. They refuse to comprehend that the Washington government is quite as helpless as the Tokyo government in the matter. Even the California government is helpless. If the people of California vote this to be the law it is the law, and nobody can even negotiate regarding it. The Tokyo government can not negotiate with the California government; this they acknowledge. But neither can the Washington government negotiate with the California government; or, if it did make informal representations, Governor Stephens could only respond that neither he nor the state legislature had any power in the matter. This law was not passed by the legislature nor submitted to the people by the government. It was placed on the ballot by a petition of eight per cent of the voters, addressed not to the government, but to the county clerks, who had no jurisdiction except to verify the petitions and certify them to the secretary of state. The secretary of state, under our system, is not a minister of government, but is merely chief clerk of the state. His jurisdiction was confined to verifying the result to those who print the ballots. At no stage does the proceeding go through any officer of the government who has any authority except to examine the correctness of clerical proceedings. The measure is on the ballot, and if it passes the people, the government can not veto it, the legislature can not repeal or amend it, the courts can not set it aside, and the Washington government can not suspend or even protest it. There would be nobody to protest to, unless it were to the whole people of California, just as individuals, and not through their government. Even a treaty could not affect the law, so far as it is within the exclusive jurisdiction of the state, because a treaty entered into by the national government can not take away from a state the rights which are reserved to it as against even the national government.

New Americans and almost no foreigners realize the extreme to which state sovereignty goes in America. California is in this respect more sovereign than the United States or Japan, and the people of California, quite independent of their government, are more sovereign than even the state government itself. When the thing is done it is simply done; beyond the reach of state, national or international law, and with no means even of negotiating about it.

The only answer the American government can make, to any protests against the action of the people of California, is "non possumus." And the people of California do not have to answer anything; they can not even be questioned. If they were to answer, it would be "non volumus." In other words, the government can't and the people won't.

The better this simple fact of American governmental structure is understood, the less effort will be wasted in futile discussion of impossibilities.

IS HARDING STUPID?

That Mr. Harding is far from an intellectual giant may be taken as granted. When his enemies berate him as a numskull and his friends, in defense, attribute to him nothing better than "poise" and "dignity"—qualities quite compatible with stupidity and ignorance—we may be very sure that he is at least not abler than his friends claim. So he is confessedly in the mediocre class.

But that is not the question. Many of his public utterances would indicate that he knows nothing at all—that he has mere glimmers of thought and can not express these. Others, more intelligible, but always on safe subjects, are obviously written by others. If we were to judge the Republican candidate only by his public utterances, he would fall far below the mediocre class, and be ranked as stupid. And yet there are intelligent men who know him well, and who credibly report that he has a mind which really does function, at times and after a fashion. The question is, Is Harding as stupid as he pretends?

And on that we are prepared to believe that much of the apparent stupidity is a pose. Harding is really not so stupid, but he thinks (perhaps correctly) that the American people will like him better if he pretends he is. "Here is a man after our own heart," they will say, "he knows no more than we do." Still more important, it is better to pretend to be too stupid to understand the League of Nations than to confess that you do understand it but are too sly to let the people know until after election what you think. The grand announcement, for instance, that President Taft and Senator Johnson are both "harmless" in support of the Harding position on the League of Nations would be impossible if Harding had expressed his position (what-ever it is) with the intelligent clarity with which both Taft and Johnson have expressed theirs. They do not agree with each other at all, and if they do with Harding, it is because he has successfully pretended to be too stupid to say anything that either of them could understand. We may well doubt that such stupidity as that is a congenial affliction. More likely it is a strategic triumph.

ONLY "STRAW"

Among the various unofficial straw votes being taken around the country are several which ask the voters to express a preference for or against "beer and light wine," and in the places where such votes are taken a very considerable "beer and light wine" vote has been revealed.

For purposes of straw vote this may be interesting. A straw vote may be taken on an academic as well as on a practical question. Questionnaires, for instance, have been sent out sometimes asking people to answer the question, "What would you do if you were left a million dollars?" The answers were interesting but not important, since most of the respondents would never have the million dollars to do anything with. The same thing is true of this "beer and light wine" list. It may be interesting to find out how many people would like beer and light wine if they could get it, but it is not important, since there is no way to bring up any such proposal. No vote either way on either proposition now upon the California ballot or seriously presented to the legislature of any state would bring back beer or light wine, even if passed. Certain states indeed did pass such laws, but the supreme court promptly and unanimously threw them all out. There is an agitation to elect a Congress which would pass such an amendment to the Volstead act. The first answer of the people was to nominate candidates whose election, no matter which party wins, now guarantees that the next Congress will be even drier than the present one. The bill will probably not be introduced, and if it were it could not pass. But the further answer is that even if some now improbable revolution of opinion were to elect some future Congress which would pass such a law the supreme court has already announced that it would throw it out.

So this wet agitation is a pure "straw vote." It may be all right to vote it in a drugstore, but let no one think that he will ever have the chance to vote it in the ballot box or that it would have any effect if he did.

MUST BOSS THEIR WIVES

Postmaster-General Burleson has evidently joined the Better America Federation. It will be remembered that this detestable association sent out circulars to its members in Los Angeles warning them against letting their wives do what Frank Vanderlip in New York had evidently not succeeded in preventing Mrs. Vanderlip from doing, when, as president of the New York League of Women Voters, she protested against corrupt politics in the New York legislature. The Federation press agent was evidently dwelling in a past age in this as in many other respects, if he thought that a modern American wife can be either put into or kept out of political activities by the alleged authority of her husband.

The Postmaster-General shares the same delusion. In a recent order forbidding postoffice employees from taking part in politics he says, "Employees are accountable for political activities by persons other than themselves, including wives and husbands." So a postoffice clerk, in addition to being required to do highly skilled work for less than unskilled pay, has also imposed upon him a problem of domestic discipline which one of the greatest bankers in America either failed in or had the decency not to try, under penalty of being removed from their jobs for the activities of their wives. Inasmuch as they are already resigning these jobs wholesale as they better pay elsewhere, we doubt if the threat will have much intimidatory power, even on the clerks. And if it has any on their wives they are not the sort of American voters we are familiar with in California.

Urges Stockingless Fad as Healthful and Economical

Upon her arrival, Miss N. Fregeac, of Paris, created a mild sensation when she appeared on the deck of the liner Lafayette without stockings. She declared the "stockingless fad" has become so popular in the French capital that the streets of Paris look more like bathing beaches than thoroughfares. Miss Fregeac also said it was both healthful and economical.

More Truth Than Poetry By James J. Montague

UNWRITTEN HISTORY

It has been discovered that Romans dwelt largely in flat houses and that profiteering among landlords was the rule.

Though Cicero the Indian sign affixed to Mr. Cataline
In early days, with measured phrase
Mellifluous and mellow,
Which made the Senate cheer and sob, we thought he overdid the job;
For Cataline appeared a fine
Though somewhat wayward fellow.

But very likely Cataline owned tenements on Palatine
And hoisted rents on helpless gent's.
Who earned but few sesterces;
And if that happens to be so we quite agree that Cicero
Was justified when he applied,
His free and flowing curses.

Though Caesar got a settling punch from Brutus Cassius and their bunch—
Their lasty act has always lacked
Our heartfelt approbation.
For Caesar, though ambition dwelt and waded apace beneath his belt,
Knew how to reign his wide domain
With sense and moderation.

But possibly when tenants cried for leave to get a landlord's hide
J. Caesar sought, as well he ought,
To do his best to save him.
And in this case we understand why he was subsequently pained,
And why he got the deadly swat.
The Roman plotters gave him!

Court Makes Diverse Picketing Decision

SALT LAKE, Oct. 1.—The state Supreme Court today upheld picketing by Portland Shoe Co. (Shoe) and denied the right of union jewelers to picket. The distinction made by the court between the two cases was that according to the opinion, the shoe store was striking to enforce a contract, while the jewelers were striking for the purpose of obtaining a new contract.

The court upheld the Oregon picketing law and denied injunctions. The court held that the picketing law does not legalize picketing a place of business where the only purpose is to compel recognition of a union.

MOTOR SPEEDWAY RACE IS ON TODAY

NINE ENTERED FOR BIG 200 MILE AUTO CLASSIC

Speed in Excess of 100 Miles Per Hour to Be Made

Preparations Are Made to Handle Vast Throngs

With the crash of a bomb and the report of a pistol shot, the Sun-Journal, Valley Classic, will begin tomorrow at 2:30 o'clock today. The event, a 200 mile race, will feature Fresno country's new quarter million dollar speedway, and meet the valley's premier racing event of the season.

Nine drivers are entered and ready to start, each with cars that are of the finest make and in the best condition. The race will be run on a 1.5 mile track, the winner receiving $500.

Do Palma, O'Donnell—Favorites. Predictions made by one of the head officials of today's race yesterday, possible "runners-up" were that Ralph de Palma and Eddie O'Donnell would be chief contenders for the first prize, while Gaston Chevrolet, Jimmy Murphy and Tommy Milton would be running for next honors. The official, however, was of the opinion that the other four drivers, Farley Hill, Thomas and Hearne are "dark horses" and that either or all of them may be among the first five.

Analyzing the race and the chances of the drivers, popular opinion is of divergent opinion, however. Tommy Milton is proclaimed a winner by his admirers, due to his many world's records, his victories at Uniontown on two occasions, his victory at Tacoma and his victory at Cleveland.

On the other hand, admirers of Joe Thomas declare that Thomas, with a magnificent record of prize winnings in either second, third or fourth place is sufficient for him to be proclaimed winner on a 200 mile race. Thomas took second at Beverly Hills, third at Indianapolis and fourth at Elgin.

Comes then, those "dark horses" and speakers of Gaston Chevrolet, who points in his record of 1000 points for the year which is superior to that of any of his competitors and which they claim is sufficient reason to place their faith in him. They point to that stupendous win at Indianapolis as an exhibit of his prowess.

Ralph de Palma, his admirers claim, is the greatest driver of all ages having won a first record during the year of 1920 are illustrious they say. They admit that de Palma has a "poor" percentage but point to his every race until his car gave him engine trouble. With a new car, they claim, he will "win" the race.

Farley Hill, a favorite of the local driver and winner of the famous "Speedy" race at Beverly Hills, is proclaimed a winner by his admirers. Hill has a string of other "win" races that makes his possibilities look favorable.

Hill Local Favorite. Eddie O'Donnell, driver of all ages having won a first record during the year of 1920 are illustrious they say. They admit that O'Donnell has a "poor" percentage but point to his every race until his car gave him engine trouble. With a new car, they claim, he will "win" the race.

It is interesting to note the differences in picking up the public for instance got 1000 or 1100 points at Indianapolis. He has scarcely shown at all since. Milton has won his points by getting into the money practically every time he has started. Farley Hill, Murphy and Hearne made his big killing with 200 points each by winning the 200 mile race at Beverly Hills speedway early in the spring. Ralph de Palma was where until he collapsed away with the horse at Elgin.

Gates Open to Autos at 8. Drivers will warm up their engines this morning between 8 and 9 o'clock. Roughly at 9 o'clock, the gates at Myrtle avenue and Ventura and Myrtle avenue and Butler will be opened to accommodate all automobiles that the oval will hold, which will number approximately 300. The oval will be divided into three sections. One in the center will be for 50,000 pedestrians while two sections at each end will be reserved for automobiles.

Patrons will be allowed to enter the oval through two subways. One is at the south end of the oval, grandstand while the other is near the main entrance at Ventura avenue. The public will be allowed to view the race from the center of the track for the general admission price will be asked.

All motorists must leave their machines in the oval until after the race is completed. They may bring their machine in during the morning and leave it during the day. The admission price for each machine will be $1.00. No machine will be admitted with its top up.

The race will be started promptly at 2:30 o'clock when Starter Frank Lowry will send O'Donnell, Hill, Farley and Murphy off together in a pair, following them Milton and Thomas will leave. Chevrolet, Hearne and de Palma will bring up the rear, with Hill and Chevrolet competing for

Frank Lowry, Starter of Race Classic, Has Meritorious Record

Frank G. Lowry, official starter of the classic this afternoon, is renowned throughout the United States, Canada and Cuba for his ability in officiating in the capacity he fills at all important speedway events held. Lowry, a resident of Los Angeles, has acted as official starter for 15 years. He has officiated at practically every speedway course and road race in three countries above mentioned. Among the more important events were the Sheepshead Bay events, the Indianapolis, Chicago, Elgin, Tacoma, Beverly Hills, Cincinnati and Santa Monica classics.

Lowry now will add to his long and creditable record, the honor of being the official to open the latest, and admittedly best race track in the world today.

The following is an exact list of drivers to start, and in the order in which they will start. The cars will be represented by the numbers appearing before each driver's name will enable the public to score the race.

Announce Positions of Cars in Classic Through Magnavox

Announcing today will be done exclusively through the Magnavox telegraph, which has been in operation at the speedway during the entire week. The Magnavox is an instrument in which the impression of the voice in a special transmitter and carried through an amplifier in which the same manner as a radio.

The instrument is owned by the Valley Electric Company and rented to the Fair Association. It is operated by H. K. Griffin. The instrument is a phonograph, has no phonographic connections and in no way is like such an instrument.

Angela, has acted as official starter for 15 years. He has officiated at practically every speedway course and road race in three countries above mentioned. Among the more important events were the Sheepshead Bay events, the Indianapolis, Chicago, Elgin, Tacoma, Beverly Hills, Cincinnati and Santa Monica classics.

Formation Today's Speedway Parade

Union officials last night said they expect 350 to 500 automobiles would be entered in this morning's union parade in celebration of the completion and dedication of the city's new $250,000 motor speedway. The start will be made at 1 o'clock sharp from Fresno and 11 streets and participants are expected to report at that point not later than 12:30 o'clock.

The line of formation announced was as follows: between Fresno and Merced streets a band and carpenter; Merced to Tuolumne, teamsters, laborers, and laborers; Tuolumne to Stanislaus, electricians, engineers, iron workers, sheet metal workers, millmen, and plumbers; Stanislaus to Calaveras, gunner traders, roofers, glaziers and painters; north of Calaveras, miscellaneous crafts, headed by band.

Tom Milton Holds Non-Competitive Time Records

Tommy Milton, holder of a great majority of the world's automobile speed records and one of the principal contenders in today's races, holds a Chevrolet, said by all race officials to be the finest racing automobile ever manufactured. The front axle has been cut from a solid piece of steel and is without doubt the finest axle ever made.

The driver has taken part in seven races this year, winning four of them, taking second once and third on another occasion. Engine trouble forced him to withdraw in the remaining contest. Milton holds all non-competitive records, from one to 200 miles and also records for one, two and three hours of continuous driving.

His world's record for one mile is 112 miles an hour on a speedway. He also holds a record of having turned 50 miles in 26 minutes. In the recent Florida beach records, he smashed everything possible. He made the fastest mile ever recorded, in 23.7 minutes of 158.04 miles an hour. He drove 100 miles in 2 minutes and four seconds or 157 miles an hour, average.

Milton won both Uniontown races, the Tacoma race and the Beverly Hills race this year. In the latter race he averaged 112 miles an hour. He was second at Elgin and third at Indianapolis.

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 1.—Increase of assessment rates amounting to approximately 150 per cent was voted at the closing session of the Mystic Worlders of the World here this afternoon.

The Executive Board of the San Joaquin Valley district will hold an important business meeting at the Parlor Lecture club house Saturday, October 2, at 10:30 a. m. to 3 p. m.

The Friday club held its initial meeting yesterday afternoon, celebrating President's Day at the home of the president, Mrs. H. E. Prescott. The afternoon was spent informally talking over vacation times and reviewing the past season's work.

The dance given by the Women's Improvement Club at the Buchanan pavilion on Wednesday night was a decided success in every way, and the club ladies are very grateful to all who helped in any way to make it such a delightful affair.

A series of dances have been planned by the club to be held throughout the fall and winter season and the proceeds are to go toward their new club house which will be built in the near future.

The Alhambra Parent-Teachers Association met Thursday and discussed plans for providing amusement during the winter.

Mrs. Frank Blaine, president of the Exeter Woman's club, states that there will be a meeting of the executive board on Tuesday, the 6th of October, after which the place of the first club meeting and the list of program committees for the year's entertainment and study will be announced. The first meeting of the club season will be held the

Buy The Shoes You Need Now

I Will Refund Any Future Reductions

It seems to be the popular feeling that prices are going to come down very shortly. I do not believe this possible in the shoe craft, but to protect my customers I have adopted the following plan:

IN THE EVENT THAT SHOES SHOULD DROP, EITHER THROUGH FACTORY REDUCTIONS OR OTHER CAUSES, I WILL REFUND IN CASH THE EXACT DIFFERENCE BETWEEN PRESENT PRICES AND WHATEVER PRICES MAY PREVAIL BETWEEN NOW AND JAN. 1, 1921. I WILL ALSO PROTECT THOSE YOU HAVE ALREADY PURCHASED FROM AUG. 30, 1920.

We will keep a record of every purchase and will also request that you keep your sales tags when purchasing.

Under this plan there will be no advantage in waiting. We are protecting you and if there is any drop in prices we are the loser.

Our prices, I am confident, are the lowest to be found for shoes of like quality anywhere.

TODAY LAST FOR REGISTRATION

Great Registry For Presidential Election Closes This Eve

Yesterday was one of the busiest days the county registration department has experienced in many months. Throughout the day a constant stream of voters were qualified to vote in the state and national elections on Nov. 2.

At times a line of such simple steps as to do credit to a box-office can be a big theatrical production, was formed. The office during the day handled approximately 200 new registrations and more than 100 transfers, while the work of outside deputies is believed to have brought the total up to the 600 mark.

Before the great register is closed this evening no more names will be added, said Registrar Miller who, with two office deputies, quickly and efficiently handled yesterday's rush of business. There can be no changing of time for the law sets deadline on registration at 5 p. m. Prior to an election. This means that all those who fail to register or file their transfers, if they are moved from their present place of residence, will lose their vote.

For the convenience of voters who field deputies will be on duty this afternoon and this evening so long as their services are required. They are Miss Wolfe in the lobby of the Griffith-McKenzie building, apt Room 1, Patterson block, over the Oai drug company.

An order settling the fourteenth account of E. A. Wolford and Al. B. Thirps at Fresno of the estate of the late W. J. Pikey was issued by the court yesterday.

A frank statement about "HEWITT" Tires and why we are going to sell them—

HEWITT TIRES AND TUBES

The best asset of any business is "Satisfied Customers." If we can sell you automobile tires that we know will give you better service than you would get from other tires then we are reasonably assuring ourselves of your continued good will and patronage.

Before assuming the agency for "Hewitt" tires we have fully satisfied ourselves that they are at least among the best tires produced in America today. We realize that there has been important progress in tire manufacture in the past few years, and that most tires have been developed to such a degree that excellent service is now the rule rather than the exception. But we also know that comparisons of factory and dealer private adjustment records show marked distinctions in favor of some tires, and that "Hewitt" adjustment "Records" show a remarkably low percentage of replacements—very much below the average.

The fact is that back of "Hewitt" tires is an organization of men of long experience in tire making whose sincere inclination is to produce the most efficient automobile tire that scientific knowledge, highest grade materials, and honest construction can make possible.

We realize that as yet "Hewitt" tires are but little known—they have never been exploited by big national advertising—but they are made and backed by one of the most responsible and substantial rubber goods makers in America, and we are authorized to see that every buyer of "Hewitt" tires gets unquestionable satisfaction.

Our reason therefore in taking the agency for "Hewitt" tires is not that we might make bigger profits, or take advantage of some big national advertising campaign, but that we might be the channel through which you can enjoy a degree of tire service which will reflect credit on us, and make you a booster for us. The "Hewitt" non-skid tire is so definitely non-skid that it dispenses with the need for skid-chains, and this non-skid quality is good for practically the entire life of the tire. This is a very important "Hewitt" feature. We will be glad to explain it to you.

NO ASYLUM GIVEN
CHINESE REFUGEES

BEIJING, Sept. 30.—(By Wire.) Representatives of America, France and Great Britain took concerted action at an informal meeting of the diplomatic corps a few days ago, called to consider what steps would be taken in view of the practical certainty that the defeated Anti leaders would seek refuge in the country. The diplomats did not announce what course they would pursue with respect to giving asylum to such persons demanded in the legations proper, but sent notice to their missions residing in the legation quarter calling attention to the fact that the protocol of 1900 prohibited the residence of refugees, other than employees, in the quarter.

Inasmuch as the refugees were sent by secretaries and clerks of legations, the action was generally regarded as the equivalent to notice that such refugees would not be received in the legations. Although most of the legations were represented at the meeting, the other ministers reserved the right to take individual action. Dr. C. D. Trench, councillor, represented the American legation in the absence of Minister Crane. Practically the only invitation affected by the decision of the three ministers was the British-owned Hotel Wagona Loo, which had become the haven of Chinese who feared that they might suffer at the hands of others. The main contingent of these refugees were given forty-eight hours in which to vacate. The rule did not apply to women and children, many of whom stayed on.

ABUSE HOMESTEAD
LAW IN HAWAII

HONOLULU, T. H., Sept. 16.—(By Wire.) Homesteaders growing sugar cane in the Territory of Hawaii are making enormous profits this year. Some of them making from $7,000 to $12,000 on twenty acres, according to Albert Horner, territorial sugar expert.

Horner in a report to Governor J. J. McCarthy, deprecates the practice of many homesteaders in hiring alien labor to cultivate their lands and declares that when this state of affairs is brought to the attention of Congress the bill will be changed down on homesteading high-class cane land in Hawaii.

Governor McCarthy said with regard to the report: "The present system of cultivation is a palpable evasion of the spirit of homesteading. It results in making the homesteader a landlord, who rents out his property to Japanese cultivators and does nothing to develop it himself. Unless this is stopped homesteading will be killed."

Conference at Brussels
Discusses Exchange
Problem

BRUSSELS, Oct. 1.—(By The Associated Press)—The world financial conference today took up the currency exchange question.

The remarkable unanimity of thought expressed in the speeches raised the hope in conference circles that in the committee work, which will really decide the success or failure of the conference, it will be easy for the delegates to agree upon a line of action.

The necessity for countries in financial distress to get to work to pay their own way and to produce more and spend less were the principal remedies proposed as a means of putting health into the currency situation and establishing exchange at today's level.

Dr. G. Vissering of The Netherlands bank replied to yesterday's statement of Lord W. Boydell, the official representative of the United States, warning of a financial disaster to the world through the failure of general cooperation through the league of nations of the world the United States would suffer as well as Europe.

"Boydell wants to found a United States of Europe," was the most general comment on Mr. Boydell's speech. Some of the delegates, particularly the French, expressed the thought that he went too far in asking the victorious Allies "to go more than half way" in order to harmonize the interests of their former enemies.

One of the delegates said: "The Allies can no more forget what Germany owes them than the United States can forget what it owes to them by Europe."

All the delegates said they recognized Mr. Boydell's address as courageous but some criticized it as severe upon the victorious allies who are the creditors of Germany.

HONOLULU, T. H., Sept. 14.—(By The Associated Press)—Refined chaulmoogra oil, the product of a tree growing in the Hawaiian Islands, is being turned against tuberculosis as well as leprosy. According to Dr. J. T. McDonald, superintendent physician of the leprosy investigation station at Kalahele in Hawaii, the oil has been used in the treatment of leprosy.

The health of leprosy and tuberculosis, according to the scientists, have been found to have similar characteristics. It has been proved that the fatty acids of chaulmoogra oil are poisonous to the leprosy bacillus and it is believed these acids will be similarly deadly to the germ of the "white plague."

Walker and Sweeney in the Harper foundation for medical research at the University of California have discovered that the fatty acids of chaulmoogra oil are bactericidal to an acid-fast bacillus. Dr. McDonald said, "Both leprosy and tuberculosis bacilli belong to the acid-fast class."

The inference, said the doctor, is that what has been done to end the dread of leprosy may be repeated to relieve the world of tuberculosis.

WORLD'S SERIES MAY NOT LOWER OTHER RECORDS

Capacity of Parks Where Games Are Scheduled
Much Too Small

Record Attendance in 1916; 42,620 Saw
Game at Boston

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Notwithstanding the general increase in baseball throughout the country it is unlikely that in the coming series to decide the world's championship that new records will be made in attendance for a single game or for the series. The reason for this is that the capacity of the parks where the games are to be played is so small that the top notch figures that have been established in previous years.

The large crowd that over-filled the stadium at the first game in the series was 42,620, which was the largest official attendance for the final contest of the 1916 season. The record for the series was set in 1916 when the Boston Red Sox defeated the Cincinnati Reds in the seventh game of the series.

Grounds are small. The home grounds of the Brooklyn club of the National League, has been tested to its capacity in one world's series. In 1916, when the Boston Red Sox defeated the Cincinnati Reds in the seventh game of the series, the attendance was 42,620. The parks for the coming series are small. In 1916, when the Boston Red Sox defeated the Cincinnati Reds in the seventh game of the series, the attendance was 42,620.

Not likely to shatter. Thus it is impossible for any of the parks where the coming world series will be played to eclipse the record of 42,620 set in 1916. The attendance at the first game of the series between the Boston Red Sox and the Cincinnati Reds in 1916 was 42,620. THREAT IN 'FUN' LETTERS LANDS YOUTH IN JAIL

Clark DeHart Alleged to Have Confessed to Authorship

Laton Fires Being Investigated in Light of New Facts

Information regarding Clark DeHart, a young man of Laton, who attempted extortion, was filed yesterday by the Fresno county district attorney's office after an alleged confession by DeHart in which he is said to have told Sheriff Jones and Deputy Wintling that he sent threatening letters "for fun." Clark is in jail here, where he was brought after being arrested yesterday afternoon at Laton.

The community of Laton has suffered a series of fires during the past three months, and more recently prominent citizens received threatening letters demanding money.

DeHart is alleged to have confessed sending five threatening letters to three persons, demanding money, and threatening with loss of property, fire or death. According to the sheriff's office, DeHart said that he had read of black hand letters being sent in New York and San Francisco, and this gave him the idea. His contention that he never intended to collect is borne out, it is said, by the fact that he never went to any of the spots which he had designated as depositaries for the blackmail money.

DeHart, whose age is given as 19 years, was arrested after a trap had been set at the Laton postoffice. The postoffice "drop" letter box was cleared and a watch kept for each letter as it was deposited. A letter was dropped in the box addressed to J. W. Herbert of Laton, and a few minutes later DeHart was arrested at a pool hall, and he is alleged by officers to have confessed to sending a number of letters.

The sheriff's office is investigating the past of DeHart, but in connection with the fires of the past few months, it is stated.

Investigate Cause Dangerous Pools of Oil on Highway

Was a practical joker or an accident responsible for the spreading of a thick coating of oil on the state highway just south of Fowler, and covering a sector almost 200 yards long?

An answer to this question is being sought by the authorities following the receipt of reports that several cars had experienced chain skids from serious accident as a result of skidding in the slippery pools of oil. The light car, said to have been occupied by a party fair-haired, crashed twice during the early morning hours, but fortunately was going at a rate of speed that caused it to completely skid out, landing right-side up again.

A large truck, heavily loaded, skidded so badly that it became unmanageable and smashed into a fence alongside the road. Numerous other cars fortunately escaped serious accident, although the drivers for a few moments were given an altogether exciting time.

Finally the reports of near-accidents kept coming in so fast that County Traffic Officer W. L. McCarthy and Constable Ford of Fowler were assigned to the job of warning passing motorists to drop their speed down to a safe minimum.

Later in the day county trucks spread a heavy coating of oil on the highway over the stretch to still further reduce the risk of accident during the evening and night hours.

Daniel Cupid Busy During Past Month

Daniel Cupid was a busy little fellow during the month of September, a total of his marriage licenses having been issued during that period, and establishing a new record for the first full month.

A peculiar circumstance disclosed by the official records is that the several changes in weather during the month was strikingly reflected in the marriage barometer. On the warm days, the number of requests were heavy, while during the cool spells there was a considerable drop.

Licenses issued yesterday follow: Dryden-Hartwell-Jack Dryden, 21, and Hazel Hartwell, 19, of Fresno. English-Mason-O. H. English, 23, and Prudence Mason, 21, of Fresno. Rodgers-Nease-William C. Rodgers, 25, and Rose Nease, 24, of Fresno. DeWitt-Gibson-Adolphus DeWitt, 37, and Grace Gibson, 18, of Fresno. Rodriguez-Oaxaca-Luis Rodriguez, 31, and Sara Oaxaca, 23, of Fresno. Larkin-Reinhart-Harry J. Larkin, 27, of St. Louis, and Helen Reinhart, 26, of East St. Louis. Sakovich-Nazaroff-Peter Sakovich, 27, and Mary Nazaroff, 18, of Fresno.

HEAVY DECLINE IN WINE GRAPE PRICES, REPORT

Independent Prices on Raisins Around Fifteen Cents

From Bonanza, Black Varieties Become Risk Says Dealer

Eastern buyers are reported to be taking heavy losses on black grapes. A drop of this there has been what local fresh fruit dealers characterize as a "heavy slump" in the varieties commonly known as "wine grapes" and eastern markets are reported as "shot to pieces."

With the general decline in black grapes there has been a drop of prices in raisins outside the association, and independent packers are said to be offering only fifteen cents for raisins.

Even at fifteen cents, said a dealer yesterday, it has been hard to get an offer on raisins lately, and eastern buyers show little interest at

Pre-Election Meets Planned By Women

Under the auspices of the Women's Civic League of Fresno a series of pre-election meetings is being conducted each Monday afternoon for the purpose of discussing some of the proposed laws to be voted upon at the coming election.

At the meeting next Monday afternoon in the council chamber of the city hall at 2:30 Mrs. W. A. Hutzgerald will lead the discussion on the health measure.

All interested are invited to attend these meetings.

Fifteen and sixteen cents. There is a general feeling of uncertainty in the air both among the independent packers and the eastern buyers within it is said, a reflection of heavy receipts of foreign raisins, heavy unloading by some of the big packers, and the fear that the movement is about to change its attitude on the manufacture of grape juices for home consumption.

From a bonanza, the blue grape business has changed to an extremely hazardous risk, said a dealer yesterday. Increased freight rates have heightened the risk.

Zinfandel, which has been selling at $2 and $2.50 per ton for about three weeks, were declared firm yesterday at these prices, but with the future uncertain. The general grape situation is said to be affecting the selling price of other grapes.

and a report last night said that Empress, which started at $3.50 per drum, had dropped to $4.10.

Flanders Poppies to Bloom in City; Help French Tots

In Flanders fields the poppies grow. Today is Poppy Day in Fresno, when large numbers of young girls will exchange for a voluntary donation the crimson poppy of France, one of the national flowers of the sister republic.

The preliminary arrangements for the Poppy Day have not with success, Mrs. LaBelle, Alameda, special delegate of the American and French Children's League, and a committee of local women making the plans for the drive.

Mrs. LaBelle said last evening "Nothing is too little, nothing is too big, everything will be gladly accepted."

The fair committee has given notice to the fair grounds today for two days coming.
